

ADDITIONAL ACCOUNT REQUEST FORM

Account Name: _____

Current or Original Account Number(s): _____

The undersigned Customer ("Customer") wishes to establish an additional trading account with Plus500US Financial Services, LLC ("Plus500US") for the purposes stated below. All trading in this account will be initiated by individuals authorized to trade for the account solely for the benefit of the account owner. Under no circumstances will the trading activity in this account be conducted for the benefit or interest of parties other than the account owner.

The undersigned authorized Plus500US to duplicate all existing paperwork, including, but not limited to, agreements and risk disclosure acknowledgments, from the current account listed above; however, Plus500US reserves the right to request new account documents for the new account. Customer accepts and agrees to be obligated by all representations, terms and conditions previously agreed to in the current account's documentation, or in the documentation assigned to Plus500US upon transfer of the current account to Plus500US.

The undersigned further represents that any additional account(s) opened pursuant to this Additional Account Request Letter is/are to be identical in all respects to the Customer's current account(s), except as otherwise disclosed to Plus500US in writing, and further represents that there have been no material changes in Customer's personal information, including financial information, previously disclosed to Plus500US upon the opening of the current account(s) listed above. For margin and regulatory reporting purposes, Customer acknowledges that Plus500US will aggregate all trading and cash activity conducted in all accounts of identical ownership and control. Customers understand that Plus500US must offset long and short positions in accordance with CFTC Reg. §1.46 and various exchange rules. Bona fide hedge accounts may maintain long and short positions in hedged contracts provided that a hedge acknowledgment letter is on file with Plus500US. Exchange member accounts may maintain long and short positions provided that such positions are part of exchange-recognized spread-reversals or conversion transactions.

PURPOSE OF ADDITIONAL ACCOUNT(S):

Requested account number(s): _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

